A Few Questions.

When you look outside your room, do you look into a gloom?

When all is not as you wish, do you seek the virgin's kiss?

Is it then that you come when you are without the light?

Is it then that you are ready to fight?

If so, why is it only with the loss of hope?

Is it that you can no longer cope?

Why so do you wait?

Why do you say it is fate?

Do you not see the world around you?

Is it in a misty gloom?

Do you know the answer of this riddle?

Have you become the sparkle to kindle?

Do you have a hidden right to vanquish the night?

Do you know more than I?

Have you been given the bigger piece of the pie?

If so, then why do you not share?

Is the reason that you no longer care?

When you look outside your room, do you look into a gloom?

Do you see the world outside as a place of harmony?
Is it a world of beauty where anything can happen?
Does Yahweh see you here, or rather do you see Him?
In the world outside do you see freedom and justice?
Does one man embrace another without contempt?
Do you see the world outside as a place of darkness?
A place without light, where only Satan is seen?
Do men in your view hate over minute things?
Is freedom bought and sold at a whim?
Does one man strike down another just because he is different?
Is the only justice, muscle and the only law, hate?
Which do you see?
Do you see the first or the second?
Do you realize that all depends upon how your viewpoint?
Has not one before I said that beauty is in the eye of the beholder?
Which eye do you see from?
Whose eye is upon you?

When all is not as you wish, do you wish for the virgin's kiss?

Whom do you see in the times of trouble?
Do you not see her near?
Do you seek in your fear?
Do you wish for her to come to you?
Does she not come when you cry?
Does she not weep when you die?

Is it then that you come when you are without the light?

Do you seek guidance?
Are you afraid of the dark?
Is it only now that you are frightened?
Is it now that you reach out and say, "Yahweh, why have you forsaken me?"
Do you think that because you have no light, He cannot see?
Have you tried to clear your vision?
Is it worth seeing when His eyes are closed against you?

Is it then that you are ready to fight?

Do you fight injustice when it is only against you?
Do you ignore the darkness done upon others?
If you would fight for your homes, your food, your religion, your love, your wisdom, then why not another's?
Does not a man only become a man, when he is among other men?
Is a man not an animal, when he is among animals?

If so, why is it with the loss of hope?

Do you worship only when you cannot achieve something yourself?
Do you not realize without Him you would be nothing?
Why not place yourself in His embrace in times of good as well as bad?
Do you not see that even if you are without hope he has given some to me?
Did you know that you do not have to become anything then what you are?
Why not call to him without despair?
Then do you think you could give me hope, when I look into my heart and do not see it there?

Is it that you can no longer cope?

What is it that you cannot overcome?
Is it a wrong deed done?
Is it perhaps a lie?
Is it perhaps a truth?
What then puts you down so that you can no longer cope?

Why so do you wait?

Do you see the war approach?
Do you see the time stopping?
Do you think the world will change on its own?
Do you think that you shall have no part within it?
Would you listen if I said, "Today you can no longer wait?"
Do you think in this you could contemplate?

Why do you say it is fate?

Do you not take responsibility for what you do?
Do you think life is but a strand that cannot be lifted by your hand?
Do you think that what is to come will be and you do not listen to me?
Do you say to Yahweh that you are within his hands?
If this is the path that you have chosen then why?
Did you ever stop to think that fate is a lie?
For who among us knows if fate lies with us or with our foes?
Do you forget that one does injustice if he does not act against injustice?

Do you see the world around you?

Do you see the things that fly?
How about the things that live and die?
Do you see what entwines us all?
Do you turn and take a different view?
Do you see the grass instead of the morning dew?
So which do you choose, the hell in which we live or the heaven?
Do you see that the answer to the first may differ?
Why do you not look through other's eyes?
Would you see a different view?

Is it a misty gloom?

How do you see this place?
Is it like that of a dream or a nightmare?
Is the vision misty because you do not any longer care?
Is the gloom caused by you or me?
How about that apple from the tree?
Why do you not try to focus?

Do you know the answer to this riddle?

Do you understand this riddle that I speak?
Does it hint to the answer you seek?
Would you see it differently if you were strong or meek?
Do you think it a language away from yours?
Do you speak the same?
Do you wish to know it for what it is?
Do you not realize that one line may be for you another for me?
Did you think to see it as a lesson?
Do you think perhaps Yahweh will give you the lines that really matter and the rest leftover for no other?

Have you become a spark to kindle?

Do you perhaps now see, what it is like to be as me?
Have you never lost hope?
Have you always been right?
Have you stood by while there was wrong?
Did you leave things to chance?
Are you driven now to take the chance, and join the dance?

Do you have a hidden right to vanquish the night?

Now do you remember a goal given to you?
Is it a mighty deed?
Is it one of small?
Do you not see that each is given a quest and nothing else matters?
Do you not see two great forces at work, one weaker than the other yet somehow as strong?
Do you love now or do you hate?
Do you remember that all this depends on the answer of the first question?

Do you know more than I?

Did you answer yes or no?
Do you see me as friend or foe?
Do you not see the love Yahweh gives?
Do you now follow Yahweh?
Have you seen the light?
Have you yet been driven to despair?
Are you yet ready to fight?
Are you in a position where you cannot cope?
Did I not say that is when I reached for Him?

Why then do you wait?

Have you been given a bigger piece of the pie?

Do you realize that none are small and none are large?
Did you think that my writing absurd because you alone have already heard His call?
If so would you keep one thing in mind?
Would you stop and think before you begin, to pray for all for us still lost in this riddle? Would you bring us closer to the light?
Did you ever think that perhaps you are called toward the wrong?
If you have any question would you ask those that are without for sometimes only they can see within?

If so, then why do you not share?

Do you not see those that are in need?
Do you not long to help?
Do you hold back because others may think you a fool?
Are you not as of yet ready for the duel?
Are you a coward or too great for any cause?
Are you like none of us?
Do you alone have no flaws?

Is the reason that you no longer care?

Are you so far above our suffering?
Do you alone not see us starve?
Do you not see those that are near you?
Do you not see those that are far?
Do you not remember a night when you were little and within the misty gloom of your little room something hid?
Did you not call on your mother to make the monster flee?
How then can you not look within our misty gloom and make the monsters flee?
Do you forget your fear or is it that being so grown up you no longer care?
